

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER: Part 1
Warning for rejecters; encouragement for the receptive
Matthew 13:1-17

I. THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER: Jesus has just condemned this generation for their rejection of Him and therefore begins to speak in parables (1-9)

1. The occasion for the Parable (1a & ch.12)

2. The Parable of the Sower (1-9)

II. WHY PARABLES? Jesus explains to His disciples that He speaks in parables to conceal kingdom truth from the rejecters and reveal it to the responsive (10-17)

A. Why parables? God in in charge of who will know Kingdom truth (10-12)

B. Why parables? God conceals saving truth from those who have rejected Him, so that they would be judged, thus fulfilling Isaiah's prophecy (13-15)

1. Isaiah's prophecy fulfilled in the response of this evil generation who is poised to be judged (13-14)

2. God conceals truth from the unrepentant who have dulled their hearts, obstructed their ears, voluntarily blinded themselves concerning His truth (15)

C. The responsive are blessed because they can see and hear truth about Him (16-17)

Next week (Lord willing)

III. JESUS EXPLAINS THE PARABLE TO HIS DISCIPLES: There are four different responses to the Word, all based on the condition of the heart (18-23)
